Frank Scott Sr. Whitely Community Council

Lesson 1

Be Yourself

Be confident and comfortable
being you

Noone will be better at
being you
than YOU

Let Me Be Frank

Lesson 2

“DELEGATE”

You Can't

- Do Everything
- Know Everything
- Be Everywhere

Many Hands Make Light Work
Just make sure they are not all your hands

Getting Community Support

Lesson 3

➤ ~~You have to make~~ ~~Before you can make~~

Community Engagement Involve

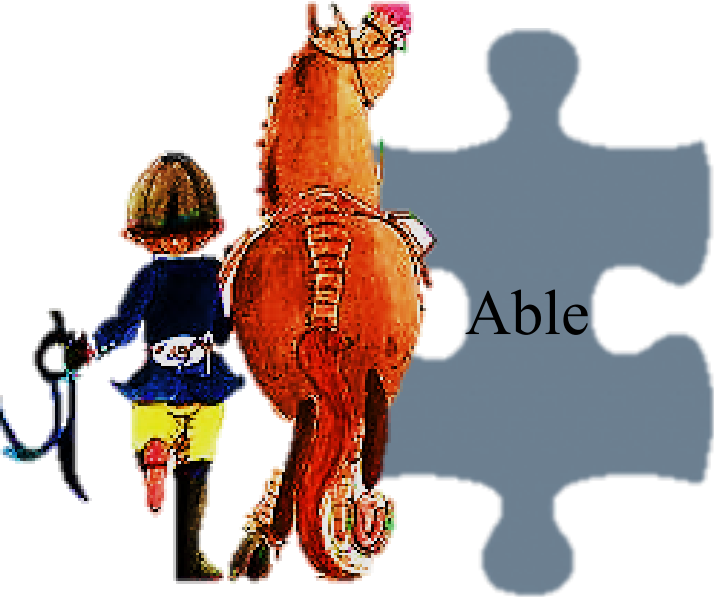

Many times, people will not Engage in something that they were not Involved in.

Get input from the people you want to be involved and make sure they are in agreement with, and are passionate about, and a part of, what you are planning to do.

Lesson 4

Know Who You're Working With

High Skill – Low Will Consulting – Advise
Convert

High Will – High Skill Willing
Delegate – Trust
Empower

High Will – Low Skill
Train – Encourage
Teamwork – Mentor

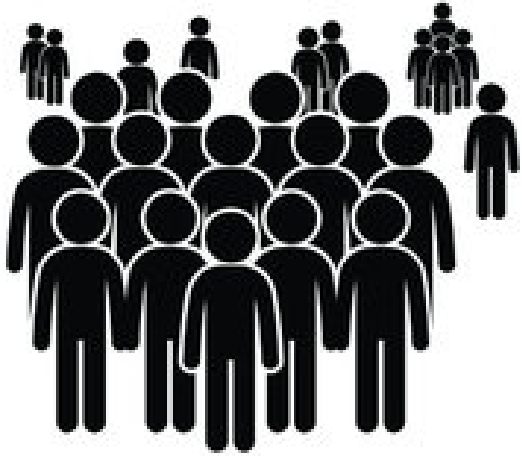

Low Skill – Low Will
Encourage – Incentivize
Develop - Include

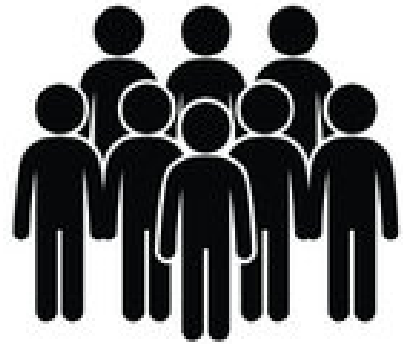

Lesson 5

Be Consistent

Consistency is a key quality of effective leaders because it helps build trust, and a sense of security.

It says you are dependable and reliable, and your actions align with your words.

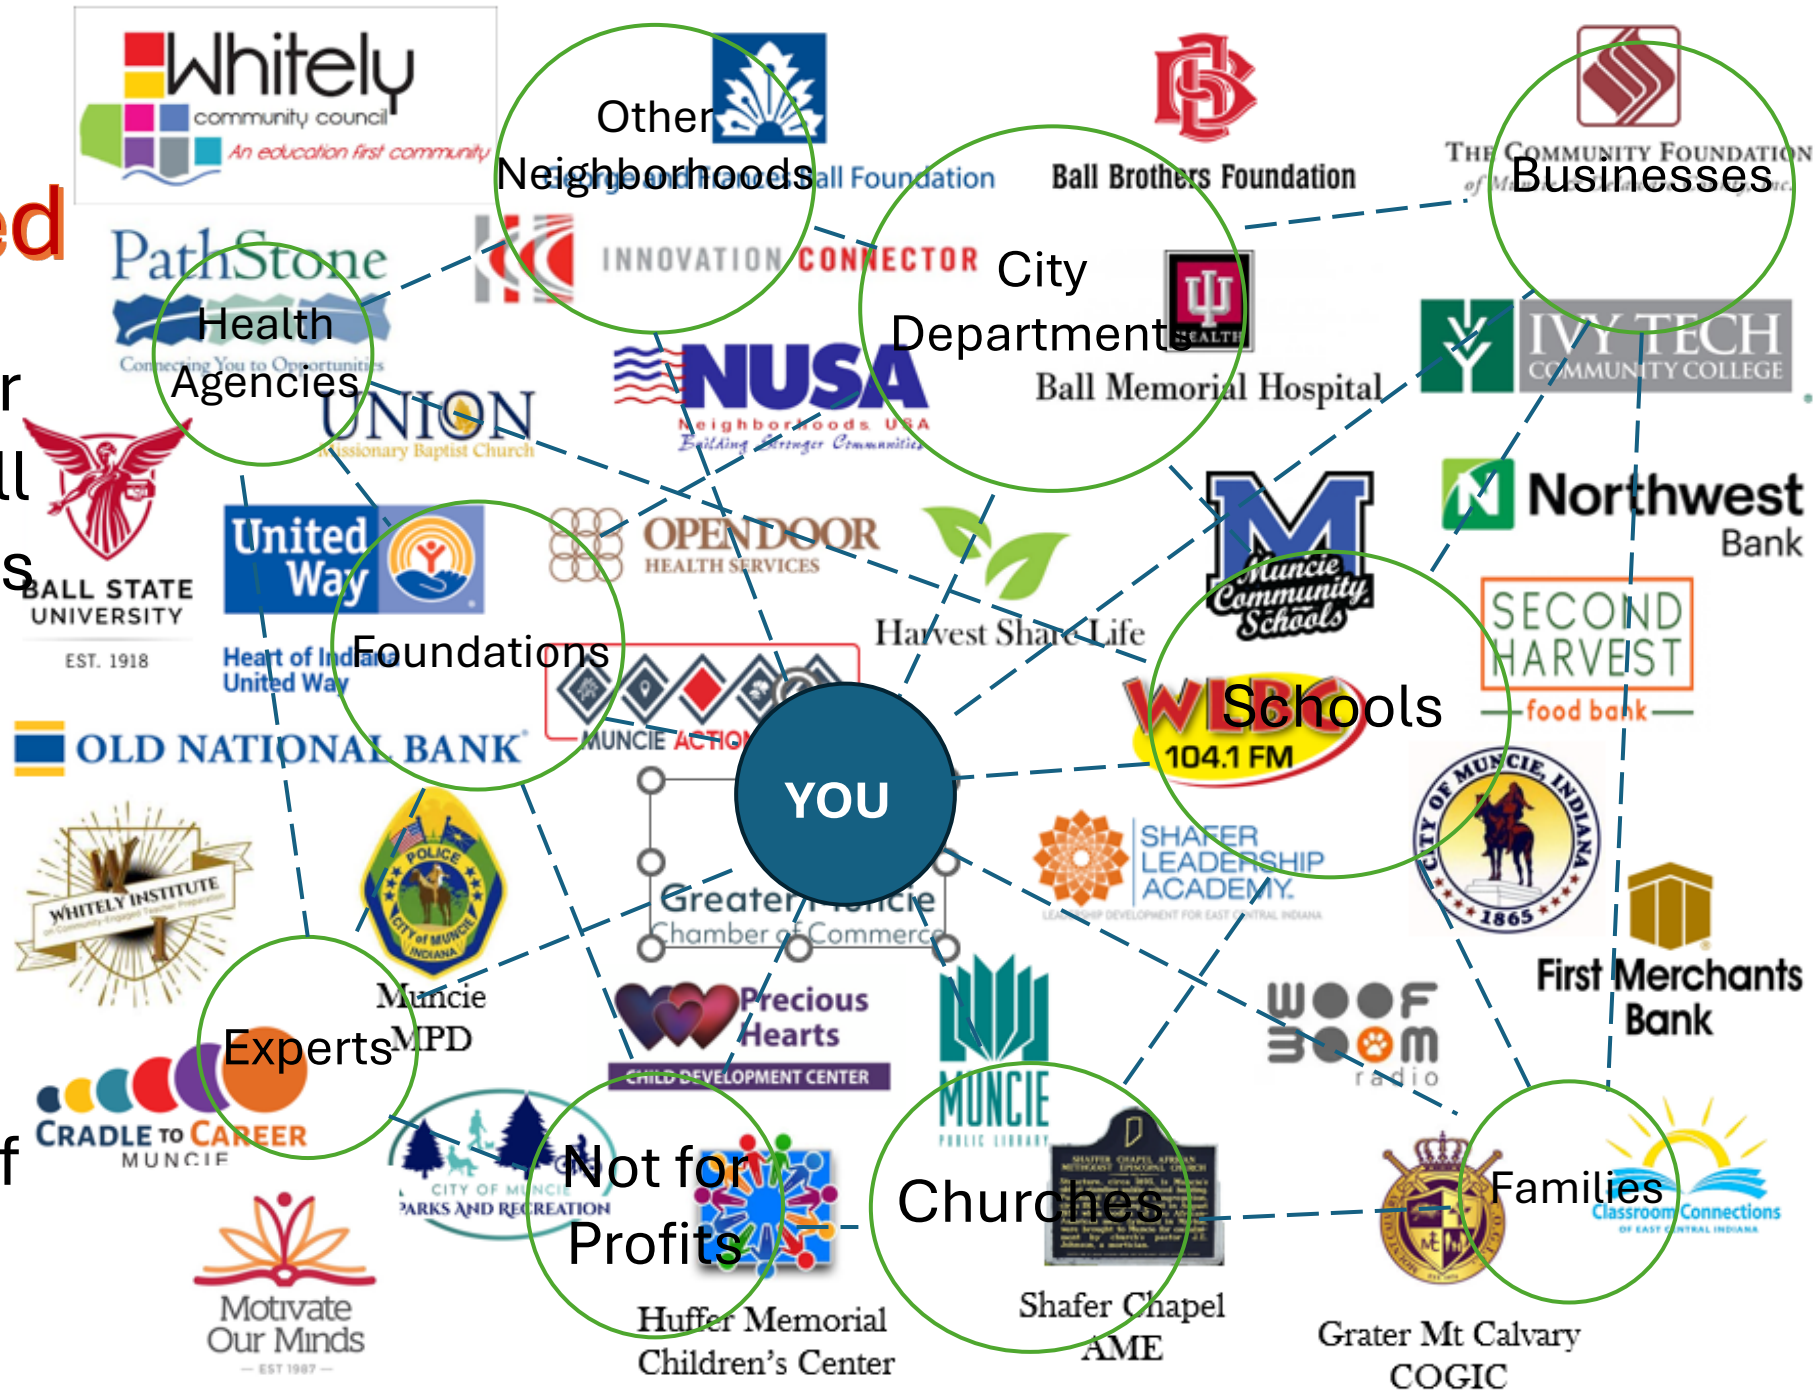

Lesson 6

Get Connected

Devise strategies for collaboration as well as build partnerships and relationships which go beyond individual projects

Join a Not-for-Profit Board

Volunteer Outside of Your Neighborhood

Lesson 7

Be Willing to Be Stretched

To the point
of growth

Lesson 8

Listen

Provide
an environment
and opportunities
and interactive
exercises

For people to share
their thoughts, express their creativity and
voice their concerns

People need to know that they were heard

Lesson 8

Make a Plan then Execute

What is the Goal? What's the Cost? What materials will I need? What are the steps to the process? Who's doing what? Who are my Partners? What is the time frame?

Don't just start! Write out / Lay out, the steps and then execute the steps plan. Follow the plan. Don't short cut the process.

Measure Success!
